by Ontario Health Region

Last updated on November 2, 2023

Paediatric Diabetes Education Programs (PDEPs) are comprised of multidisciplinary teams of nurses, dietitians, and social workers working with paediatricians, paediatric endocrinologists, and/or family physicians, who provide comprehensive care to children and youth with diabetes in Ontario.

Please contact the PDEP in your community to learn more about the specific services they provide, including where services are provided (e.g., some PDEPs have satellite locations in addition to the main site listed herein and/or do outreach to surrounding communities).
